Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.
The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.
During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.
We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.
Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.
The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.
Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the most quality.
Terms moderate and accommodation.
The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

PHŒNIX MUTUA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. | JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:
1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Policies are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone, and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $500,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a SAFE business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

PHŒNIX MUTUAL	$1 74
ÆTNA	1 81
BROOKLYN	1 12
CONNECTICUT MUTUAL	1 62
EQUITABLE	1 24
MANHATTAN	1 42

The PHŒNIX MUTUAL offers peculiar inducements to citizens of the Southern States—its regulations with regard to residence and travel being almost unrestricted. These statements are made from impartial reports in the hands of the Agents of the Company.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. D. IMBODEN, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public,
FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c., in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State having such property for sale, to address me at Hillsboro, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to fill the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling

Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.
And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq.; of Hillsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.
The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and to this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.
TERMS.—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.
Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

State Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on WEDNESDAY, the 5th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every County of the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention. The condition of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee.

R. C. BADGER, Secretary.

January 4th, A. D. 1868.

PERMANENT SETTLERS.

The "black and tan" Radical paper of this city, we learn, is considerably riled, because the Conservative papers, and, especially, the Sentinel, in speaking of new-comers among us, allude to their nativity or the State from whence they came.

The Sentinel has taken no position on this subject, which is not fully defensible. We have no prejudices against any man on account of the place or the manner of his birth, or his color. We treat every man "according to his color," to use an old phrase, or, rather, according to his behavior and the exhibition of real worth developed by his deportment.

The crisis in which the Southern States have been placed, by the action of the Radical party, obliges every true Southron, and, among us, every true North Carolinian, to look closely to the characters, purposes and designs of every man, who asks their suffrages or desires public position. It is not in the nature of a man to accommodate himself immediately to any people among whom he is a stranger. He must become identified with the soil and acquainted with the habits, sympathies and interests of the people of the State, before he can properly understand their wants, and should be well known by the people, before he should be trusted with important public interests.

There are many Northern men in the State, whom we regard with kindness and consideration, because, in all respects, they have shown themselves friendly to our people and their interests. They have not sought to ingratiate themselves, into the special favor of a particular race or party among us, and striven to alienate them from, and put them in antagonism to, the rest of our people. They have not put themselves forward for office, and sought place by every possible means, for the purpose of changing the whole face of society—making white black, and black white. They have not claimed to be superior to our people, nor excited unjust clamors among the blacks against the white race. There are Northern men among us, who have been residents in the State for thirty years, who do not think, even now, of forcing themselves immodestly upon our people for office.

Our impressions are not unfavorable to those Northern men who have recently come among us, and whose deportment has been becoming, who have shown a disposition to treat all classes of our people with proper consideration, and who seek to make permanent homes among us, even though they differ with us in politics. But if any of these gentlemen are good and worthy citizens and intend to make North Carolina their permanent homes, does that constitute a reason why they should be preferred over old and reliable, well-known citizens of the State, for important and responsible positions? We think not. Would it not really look better,—would it not be more becoming—in those who have recently come among us, to "watch and wait," to understand our people better than they do, and modestly decline yet awhile being put forward in positions of responsibility? We do not charge that any of the gentlemen named have sought, unasked, these positions, but have not those, who have urged upon them these positions, been persons of small consideration in the community, and, often, persons, whose positions in society are not such as to entitle their opinions to general respect?

Just here, we must say, that while we are disappointed and feel regret at the awkwardness of our friend Cowles, in his position as President of the Convention, and while, no doubt, some of the Standard's Northern friends would have made a better showing, yet we think the Convention showed a becoming respect in selecting a North Carolinian in preference to others.

STANTON.—It is stated in the Washington correspondence of the New York Herald, that Secretary McCulloch has issued an order to the heads of Bureaus in his Department, forbidding them to recognize Mr. Stanton as Secretary of War, until his status in that Department is settled. It is also said that similar orders have been issued in other Executive Departments.

THE CONVENTION.

The session of the so-called, on Saturday, was a most entirely consumed in listening upon Dr. Durham's resolutions. The resolutions were clear enough in themselves, and so patently just and proper, that they required neither defence nor elucidation, and the Conservatives were quite easy as to their fate. Not so with the Radicals. They approached them with long tongs, as if they were a snapping turtle, and seemed to be dubious as to the best way of handling the serpent. The Conservatives simply tried to force them to a direct vote upon them, but the Radicals stoutly resisted the attempt. One moved to lay on the table, another opposed. It had been given out, in the morning, that J. H. Harris, the negro delegate from this county, would demolish the resolutions and their mover.—Harris at length came forth with some resolutions as a substitute. He had them read. Not a Conservative stirred or listened to them. The resolutions, we are told, were scurrilous, ridiculous and impudent, but our Reporter failed to get them, as they were not in the possession of the Clerk, at the close of the session. Harris made his speech, but no Conservative noticed him. His substitute was finally ruled out of order. It was then proposed by a Radical to refer Mr. Durham's resolutions to a select Committee of three; which was not agreed to. The Conservatives wanted a direct vote, then and there, but this the Rads would not risk. Finally, as will be seen, they were indefinitely postponed, and thus the issue was dodged.

Jas. O'Hara, (negro,) of Wayne, was elected Engrossing Clerk. We do not know his qualifications. We presume he has none—but, still, we think it was high time for the Radicals to redeem their pledges to the negroes and give them some of the "crumbs."

MR. RODMAN'S ORDINANCE.

The following is the Ordinance of Mr. Rodman, introduced in the Convention, on Friday, and which comes up for discussion on to-morrow:

"An ordinance restricting the jurisdiction of Courts of this State.

Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, That no Court of law or equity of this State shall have jurisdiction of any suit or action, founded on any contract made prior to 1st day of May, 1865, (except actions against public officers, executors, administrators, guardians, trustees and others acting in a fiduciary capacity, and their sureties, for breach of their respective duties;) or of any action or process to waive or enforce any judgment heretofore recovered on any such contract, whether such action be now pending or shall be commenced hereafter, and whether such process has been already issued or shall be hereafter sued for, and the Sheriffs, coroners and constables of this State, having in their hands any final process issued upon any judgment, founded in such cause of action, are hereby commanded to stay all proceedings in the same and to return the same to the proper courts.

SEC. 2. This ordinance shall be in force after its ratification by this Convention, and shall continue in force until the Constitution, which this Convention has met to form, shall go into effect."

If we are not mistaken, the late order of Gen. Canby contains a provision nearly similar to the above. It is very probable, that, under any possible contingency, General Canby, or General Grant, under whose dictatorship this district may be placed, will not be backward, in affording any possible relief of this sort, which either can give, to the people. We, therefore, regard the above ordinance as unnecessary, and, if it is designed to effect any relief for the people from their present embarrassments, it is but a poor "sub to the whale." The indefiniteness of the limit fixed by the ordinance, if nothing else contained in it is unconstitutional, renders it clearly contrary to the Constitution of the United States, an instrument which, we learn, all the members of the Convention have sworn to support.

It is well known that there are many persons in the State, who are looking forward to this Convention to pass an ordinance entirely repudiating all debts. Whatever powers the Convention may claim, it is certain that it has no power to pass such an ordinance; yet if it were disposed to assume such power, no member could vote for such an ordinance, without violating his oath.

The ordinance of Mr. Rodman, if the Constitution adopted by the Convention should be ratified in any short time, would afford little or no relief to the people. The only benefit to be derived from it, to those who desire repudiation, would be to prevent the ratification of the Constitution as long as possible, and thus put off to an indefinite period all settlement of debts incurred before the year 1865. But, under the ruling of the District Commanders, the ordinance would be a dead letter until the Constitution is ratified. Hence it is wholly unnecessary.

The only relief which can be afforded to the people, if they ultimately have to pay their old debts, is not a longer delay in forcing a settlement, (for the longer the settlement is delayed, the greater must be their difficulties,) but some law, if such an one can be passed, by which the property they have can be made to bring nearly or quite its value. What honest men dread most, is the utter sacrifice of their property. If the wisdom of the "Convention" could devise some plan to effect this, it might do a good service to the people.

H. H. HELPER, one of the Publishers of the Register of this City, has published a lengthy reply to the letter of his brother, H. R. Helper, published by the latter in the National Intelligencer.

The New York World takes the following notice of H. H. Helper's letter, in reply to the "Nojoque" man:

"The Mr. Helper, who publishes one of the Raleigh papers, (the Register,) finds it Nojoque to be the brother of the author of the anti-negro book."

A NEGRO has been nominated by the Radicals of Louisiana for Public Treasurer of that State. So we go.

SOUTHERN CONVENTIONS.

It is becoming more and more palpable, that, however violent the Radicals in Congress may be, they are nevertheless uneasy at the development of too violent a spirit in the Southern Radical Conventions.

It seems to be understood that Dr. Powell, of the "Fourth Ward," is here with communications from the Radical Congressmen, warning the Radical Convention, now in session, against putting its coulter too deep.

The following statements, from the correspondent of the New York World, now attending upon the Georgia Radical Convention, at Atlanta, indicates that the same pressure has been put upon that body.—He says:

"During the late recess very minute advices have been received from the Congressional manipulators of Reconstruction; and, by dint of these and divers letters which are daily received from Washington—chief among these patriotic scribes being Sherman and Sumner—something like a policy is now apparent. This policy is in three points: First, to choke off the negro delegates; second, to give the very fullest relief possible—that is, to repudiate as many private contracts as may be—in hopes thereby to catch votes for the new constitution; and third, to make this bogus instrument as plausible as can be and complete its formation in the speediest possible time. In pursuance of these instructions, Ethiopia has been fearfully snubbed of late, and so constantly called to order and told to take its seat, that that sweet fount of wisdom is measurably dumb. Even Aaron Alpeoria Bradley, the negro member of the Boston bar, who arrived this morning from the Savannah calaboose, where for some days past he has been in durance vile, failed to orate as usual; and was in fact only heard once during the day, when his feelings as a parliamentarian overcame him to the extent of a muffled Hear! Hear! Beyond this, however, and the introduction by another gentleman from Congo of an ordinance to promote social equality on pain of $15,000 fine, the first point—muzzle the niggers—has been tolerably well observed. As to the second instruction—catch votes by wide "relief"—Major General Meade has, as will appear from his speech and order above given, helped things along immensely. An amendment to the original "ordinance"—which forbade all process irrespective of date of obligation—is under consideration in the nature of a limitation to cases of date prior to 1st June, 1865, and with its adoption, which is certain, General Meade will doubtless decree its enforcement in a general order similar to the one hereinbefore given, and, in so doing, work incalculable benefit to the reconstruction scheme. As to the third point—the formation of the "constitution"—three articles of that instrument have been introduced; work is to begin thereon on Monday morning next, and no outside matter, save "relief," is to be allowed consideration. With this as the path marked out by Congress for this its bastard child, that misbegotten thing, "convention," has a scheme of its own to work, in the nature of a resolution asking Congress for an act authorizing it to remove present State officers pending the formation or ratification of the "Constitution" and to fill vacancies thereby made. Already a committee has been appointed to receive the names and consider the cases of persons under disability by act of Congress, with a view to their being sent in with a recommendation for removal thereof, and with this minor bait for votes and General Meade's probable validation of the "relief" ordinance, reconstruction in these parts seems to feel its youth renewed like the eagle's, and in the blooming looks of its hierophants bears promise of coming up with a new song."

GENERAL HANCOCK IN DEFENCE OF CIVIL INSTITUTIONS.

On the 28th ult. General Hancock addressed a letter to the Governor of Texas, informing him that certain papers had been received from General Reynolds, commanding the District of Texas, requesting that a military commission might be ordered for the trial of one G. W. Wall for shooting a Mr. Black in the month of October, 1867.—In his letter the General says:

"At this time the country is in a state of profound peace. The government of Texas, organized in subordination to the authority of the government, is in the full exercise of all its proper powers. The courts, duly empowered to administer the laws and to punish all offenders against those laws, are in existence. No unwillingness on the part of these courts is suggested to inquire into the offences with which the prisoners in question are charged, nor are any obstructions whatever in the way of enforcing the laws against them said to exist. Under such circumstances there is no good ground for the exercise of the extraordinary power vested in the Commander to organize a military commission for the trial of the person named. It must be a matter of profound regret to all who value constitutional government that there should be occasions, in times of civil commotion, when the public good imperatively requires the intervention of the military power for the repression of disorders in the body politic; but that the intervention of this power should be called for by civil magistrates when the laws are no longer silent, and civil magistrates are possessed in their respective spheres of all the powers necessary to give effect to the laws, excites the surprise of the Commander of the Fifth Military District. In his view it is of evil example and full of danger to the cause of freedom and good government that the exercise of the military power in such cases should ever be permitted, when the ordinary powers of the existing State governments are ample for the punishment of offenders, if those charged with the administration of the laws are faithful in the discharge of their duties. In the opinion of the Commander of the Fifth Military District the existing government of the State of Texas possesses all the powers necessary for proper and prompt trial of the prisoner in question in due course of law. If those powers are not exercised for that purpose, the failure to do so can be attributed only to the indolence or culpable inefficiency of the officers now charged with the execution of the State laws, and in case of such failure it will then become the duty of the Commander to remove the officers responsible for such failure and replace them with others who will discharge their duties. If it then be found impossible to secure a sufficient number of persons among the people now exercising political power in Texas to supply the public with officers who will enforce the laws, it will be necessary for the Commander to exercise the powers vested in him for vindication of the majesty of the law. But until such time shall have arrived it is not his intention to have recourse to those powers, and he deemed the present a fitting occasion to make this known to the Governor of Texas, and through him to the people of the State."

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

SATURDAY, January 18, 1868.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. Smith, of the City.

Mr. Tourgee presented a memorial from "The Friends' Freedmen's Association of Philadelphia." He hoped that it would receive the careful consideration of the House, and asked that it be referred to the Committee on Education, when such Committee was formed.

Mr. Kinney presented a similar memorial.

Mr. Heaton, from the Committee of Sixteen, to whom was referred the resolution of Mr. Pool, of Pasquotank, upon the subject of legislation by the Convention, offered the following report:

"The Committee of Sixteen, to whom was referred the resolution of Mr. Pool, of Pasquotank, have had the same under consideration, and report the following as a substitute therefor:

Resolved, That the Convention, being called to frame a Constitution and civil government, in accordance with the Acts of Congress, will proceed in the discharge of that duty, as speedily as practicable."

Mr. Tourgee moved its adoption; and it was carried.

Mr. Grant, of Wayne, moved that the Convention go into an election of an Engrossing Clerk, and nominated J. E. O'Hara, (negro,) for the position.

Mr. Heaton, of Craven, moved to elect by acclamation.

Mr. Sweet called attention to Rule No. 16, as applicable to such cases.

After quite a lengthy debate upon the proper construction of the Rule, it was determined to let the matter drop until resolutions regularly came up.

Mr. Bradley offered the following resolution, which lies over under the rule:

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to wait upon His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina, and inform him of the organization of the Convention, and that the Convention is now ready to receive any communication he may desire to make.

The resolution offered by Mr. Ashley, on yesterday, coming up, he offered the following substitute:

Resolved, That the Committee of 16 be instructed to further consider, and report, as soon as practicable, upon the best method of carrying into effect the Constitution establishing a civil government in North Carolina.

Mr. Abbott moved its adoption. Carried.

Mr. Durham's resolutions of yesterday (published in the Sentinel of Saturday) were next reached, when

Mr. Durham said that, in order to give the other gentlemen time to consider the resolutions, he moved that they be made the special order for Wednesday next, at 12 o'clock.

Mr. King opposed the motion, and moved to lay them on the table.

Mr. Durham called for the yeas and nays.

Mr. Abbott said, that as he wished to discuss the resolutions, he would oppose the motion to table.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, (negro,) hoped that the gentleman from Lenoir (Mr. King) would withdraw the motion, as he wished to introduce a substitute.

Mr. King at once withdrew.

(Harris hereupon introduced a substitute, which was so irrelevant as to be ruled out of order, and it was returned to him.)

Mr. Ashley moved to refer the resolutions to a select Committee of three; but

Mr. King renewed his motion to table.

Mr. McCubbins said that the reason why a postponement was wished, was that the resolutions might be withdrawn.

Mr. Durham said that he did not intend to withdraw them under any circumstances.

Mr. Ellis wished their postponement, as he desired time for consideration.

The question on tabling being insisted upon, the yeas and nays were called, as demanded, and resulted in the rejection of the motion.

Mr. Abbott said he would vote against the postponement to a future day and for reference to a Committee.

Mr. Tourgee hoped that neither the motion to postpone nor that to refer would prevail, as he wished to debate the question to-day.

Mr. Durham said he did not arise to discuss the merits of the resolution. His only reason for being willing to postpone the matter for a few days was to afford time for consideration.

After some further colloquy,

Cuffee Mayo, (negro,) of Granville, wanted to expatiate, but was squelched by the President.

After a great deal of talk,

Mr. King, of Lenoir, offered an amendment to Mr. Durham's motion, postponing the whole matter until 20th May, 1868.

Mr. Pool was understood to advocate this disposition. He thought the present debate unnecessary, and that there would be ample time for discussion when the suffrage question came up in the Constitution.

Mr. Durham was himself earnestly anxious to settle the thing to-day, but repeated the reason why he had moved a brief postponement.

The question recurring on Mr. King's amendment, it was rejected: Yeas 7, Nays 103.

The question upon Mr. Durham's motion was then taken, and resulted: Ayes 32, Nays 76.

Mr. Abbott said he was in favor of the first resolution and moved its adoption.

Mr. Durham said that there was nothing objectionable in any of the resolutions; that the Reconstruction Acts were certainly unjust and oppressive.

[Here Harris, of Wake, (negro) arose to a point of order, stating that the gentleman from Cleaveland was discussing the entire resolutions, (!) when the first only was under debate. The Chair sustained the point.]

Mr. Durham resumed, and said, in reply to the ruling of the chair, that the resolutions had an intimate connection, and it was plain the gentlemen of the other party were endeavoring to dodge the issue.

Mr. Abbott said that if the resolution was taken according to his interpretation, he was in favor of it, but, taken in any other light, he would vote against the whole series, and asked Mr. Durham if the resolution meant "restoring the State to the same constitutional relations as existed before the war."

Mr. Durham replied, "Certainly not;" that he would not, if he could, assume the moral responsibility of reviving the institution of slavery. Neither did he wish to have the unjust provisions of the Reconstruction Acts forced upon the people.

After some time consumed in further debate,

Mr. King moved the indefinite postponement of the resolutions, and it was carried by the following vote:

Ayes:—Messrs. Abbott, Ashley, Benbow, Bryan, Carey, (negro,) Carter, Candler, Cherry, (negro,) Chillson, Colgrove, Congleton, Daniel, Dickey, Duckworth, Ellis, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, Fullings, Gahagan, Garland, Garrett, George, Graham, of Montgomery, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Hay, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, (negro,) Heaton, Highsmith, Hobbs, Hollowell, Hyman, (negro,) Ing, Jones, of Caldwell, King, of Lenoir, Kinney, Laflin, Lee, (negro,) Legg, Logan, Long, Mann, McDonald, of Moore, Morton, Murphy, Nance, Nicholson, Patrick, Parks, Patree, Peterson, Pierson, (negro,) Pool, Ragland, Rhodes, Robbins, (negro,) Rodman, Rose, Smith, Stilly, Stillwell, Teague, Trogdon, Tucker, Turner, Welker and Williams,—69.

Nays—Aydlett, Barnes, Blume, Bradley, Durham, Etheridge, Forkner, Graham, of Orange, Hare, Hodnett, Holt, Hood, (negro,) Jones, of Washington, Lennon, Mayo, (negro,) Merritt, McDonald, of Chatham, Moore, Mullican, Parker, Ray, Read, Renfrow, Rich, Sanderlin, Taylor, Tourgee, Watts and Williamson,—29.

Mr. Heaton's resolution declaring J. E. O'Hara (negro) Engrossing Clerk, came up.

Joel Ashworth was also nominated, but the nomination was withdrawn.

O'Hara was then elected, as a matter of course, but

Messrs Ellis and McDonald, of Chatham, wished it understood that they voted for Ashworth.

The Convention, on motion of Mr. Ellis, adjourned until Monday morning.

MARRIED,

By the Rev. John Long, on the 14th. inst. Mr. JOHN MAYNARD to Miss MARGARET E. YOUNG, all of Guilford County, N. C.

THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES BY DEATH, IN SOUTH CAROLINA: $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA,

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH OF ALL.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and LESS than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a certain provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

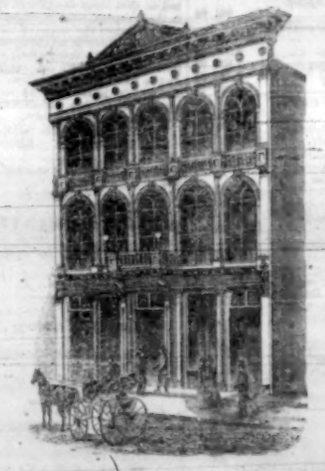
ABOVE LIABILITIES.



A VERY IMPORTANT FACT. THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION AND HAS 45,000 MEMBERS. HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

MONDAY, JANUARY 20, 1868.

CONVENTION.—The Daily Sentinel, with the proceedings of the Radical Convention, will be sent regularly for $1 for a month, or during the Convention, if its session does not greatly exceed that time.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Several of our friends have remitted us monies for new subscriptions, according to our last year's terms. In every case we give such subscribers full credit for the amount sent, according to our new terms.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Iron, (a cheap and well-selected stock,) new crop Cardenas Molasses, &c.: Lynn Adams, South side of Market Square.

Wanted,—100 Bales of Cotton, for which the highest cash price will be given: Lynn Adams. Mr. Adams is one of our most enterprising Dealers, and is in the habit, always, of performing what he promises.

The 5th. session of Springfield Academy, near Auburn, of which C. N. Allen, Esq., is Principal, will commence on the 27th.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Henry Ferrell and Eldridge Mayho, two ungrateful colored individuals, were up before his Honor, on Saturday, charged with stealing shoes from the Freedmen's Bureau. They were returned to the County Court.

A colored man, at a late hour of the night, was seen by the Police, offering harness for sale to persons camping in Lynn Adams' lot. The harness was recovered and is now at the Mayor's office, subject to the claim of the owner.

BACK NUMBERS.—Such has been the unprecedented demand for the Sentinel, we are compelled to state that we cannot supply back numbers from this date. We are not yet, however, "done taking in." Send on and we will do the best we can for our subscribers.

DELINQUENTS.—Some of our friends have failed to settle up old scores, and others to renew. Look out for the cross mark.

REMEMBER that Sargent's Dramatic Company will give their first exhibition, at Tucker Hall, to morrow night.

PRIVILEGES OF THE FLOOR.—Mr. Ashley, of New England, via New Hanover, in advocating his resolution, in the so called Convention, for the exclusion of all persons, except officers and members, from the floor of the House, unless by invitation, plaintively declared that irreverent individuals passed through the Hall with their hats on and with lighted pipes, &c. We learn that this is not an overdrawn picture; but as the most numerous frequenters of the Convention are negroes, Mr. Ashley's resolution looks very much like snubbing the "friend and brother."

CONTRAST.—A Florida correspondent of a lady in this City writes, under date of January 10th., that "the weather has been so mild until within the last two days, that the ladies have visited in skirts and swiss-waists." The same letter contains a yellow jessamine, which was in full bloom at the time of writing!

WELDON HOTEL.—We learn that G. W. Blacknall, the enterprising and admirable caterer of Kittrell's Springs, has rented from Mr. Cheatham, of this City, the Hotel at Weldon, of which Mr. C. became the lessee some days since. Mr. Blacknall will keep up the House in the same style which has rendered all other establishments, over which he has presided, so famous for good cheer.

THE CONVENTION.—A greater interest is felt by the public at large, than is generally supposed, with respect to the proceedings of the "Convention" now in session. If we may judge from the accessions to our subscription lists within the past week, we should say the doings of no body which ever assembled in North Carolina were looked for with more—what shall we say? Curiosity, perhaps, with a considerable sprinkling of anticipated merriment. At least, we should judge so, from the character of the letters we receive. We have been chastised by Gen. Abbott for speaking of the august concern as "so-called." Why, that is the mildest term by which we have heard it designated, outside of a few Radical sources. The Wilmington Star irreverently terms it the "Gorilla Convention," and there are now before us four letters, ordering the Sentinel, during the deliberations of the body,—one of which speaks of it as the "Black-Republican Convention," another as the "Nigger Convention," another as the "Bones and Banjo" Convention, and still another as the "Bench-leg" Convention. We confess ourselves at a loss to know what is meant by the latter appellative.

EXCITEMENT AMONG THE POLITICIANS—SPECULATIONS IN REFERENCE TO THE COURSE OF THE PRESIDENT—INDIGNATION AGAINST GENERAL GRANT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16, 1868.

Never were the busy brains of politicians in Washington so occupied as at present with speculations in reference to the course the President will, or can, or ought to pursue in the all-absorbing Stanton difficulty; and never were the radicals in Congress so fiercely determined to assail, impeach and hurl the Executive of the nation from his position if he attempt to nullify the action of the Senate by refusing to recognize or to admit Secretary Stanton to his cabinet. To-day a good deal of talk breathing hostility against the President was indulged in, and the expression was frequently made use of that if the impeachment case had borne this high crime, which is already assumed to have been committed upon its record, no conservative scruples would have dared to intrude themselves in the way of its immediate passage. Whether the freely uttered threats are merely the ebullitions of pent-up, harmless anger or not, time will determine; for the general impression prevails that the President will act one way or the other without delay.

Regarding Stanton, the conservatives can hardly express themselves with composure. Republicans, too, can be heard denouncing him in no mincing terms, and even General Grant, who has hitherto escaped the least breath of unpopular feeling, comes in for a share of the indignation so lavishly directed against Stanton.

Generals Grant and Sherman called upon the President to-day. The conversation was principally directed upon the occurrences of the past few days. In the presence of Gen. Sherman, Gen. Grant admitted that he had promised only to resign the office of Secretary of War ad interim in response to the proper legal proceedings, or if circumstances demanded another course he would surrender the office into the President's hands.

It is said that Gen. Grant feels very much chagrined at his singular conduct in the matter, and that he is now using his influence to induce Mr. Stanton to resign.

No official or other communication has passed between the President and Mr. Stanton since his re-instalment, and no orders have been issued by either.

WARNING TO THE NORTH FROM A UNION MAN.

The Hon. T. A. R. Nelson, of Tennessee, whose adherence to the Union during the war, as our readers remember, brought him into trouble with the Confederate authorities, is making a noble, though we fear a futile effort to check the madness of the North and save the republic, though now in the rapids, from the Niagara towards which she is hurrying. From a recently published letter by him, the prophecies and admonitions of which should not pass unheeded, we extract the following earnest invocation:

"Let the North remember that there is a just God, who ruleth in the armies of Heaven, and upon earth, who governs nations as well as men; that He used the Assyrians as instruments to punish the rebellious Jews; but when the Assyrians persecuted them from year to year, when they 'showed no mercy,' when upon them they 'laid very heavily their yoke,' He raised up Cyrus to take Babylon, and punish the conquerors, who had been His instruments, most severely. Let them remember that, although the South is conquered and subjugated, helpless and powerless, bound hand and foot and bleeding at every pore; although her rich men have been humbled in the very dust; though her 'servants are now upon horses and her princes are walking as servants upon the earth;' though famine broods over her; though she has 'drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling and wrung them out'—yet her shrieks of agony will go up to Heaven, and, sooner or later, will be heard; and, in some form, now hid from mortal ken, 'He who forgetteth not the cry of the humble,' will be her friend and her avenger."

NOX EST.—Our Atlanta dispatch confirms the report alluded to by us yesterday, that the funds of the State have been removed out of the reach of the Black-and-Tans.—This fact, together with Governor Jenkins' proclamation suspending the collection of all State and county taxes until May next, puts a very discouraging aspect on the financial question, which, more than any other, seems to engross the attention of the Convention. For a while they may be able to forage on the people of Atlanta, but in time the chicken coops and pig pens of even this flourishing village will be depleted, and no money can be got from the Treasury, nor from the pockets of the people, if it to be apprehended that the patriotic body will be reduced to short rations before they complete their herculean labors of giving a republican form of government to our ancient Commonwealth. The subject is one worthy the humane consideration of the Freedmen's Bureau.—Savannah News.

It is announced that Rev. William R. Alger is writing the "History of the Devil."—If Alger be an accurate and faithful historian, a large portion of his history will include the Congressional Globe and Appendix from March 4, 1861, to the death of the fortieth Congress.—Chicago Times.

The Northern Democratic papers describe the difference between rebels and Radicals to be that one tried to break up the Union and failed, the other tried to break it up and succeeded. One is the standard of treason, the other of loyalty.

A Paris landlady requested a Christmas party on the third floor to cease dancing as a man below them was dying. The guests acquiesced. Returning an hour later, "My dear children," she exclaimed, with the most benevolent smile, "you may begin again, he is dead!"

TELEGRAPHIC.

Monday Morning Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18, P. M.

The Senate's adjournment from Thursday to Monday discourages the extremists. Its apathy is denounced. It is almost certain that the bills changing the Supreme Court, and degrading Gen. Hancock, will fail of two-thirds in the Senate.

Senator Anthony's paper opposes the emasculation of the Court, and letters from soldiers in all parts of the country are pouring in, protesting against the degradation (of Gen. Hancock.) The bill impairing the army, by mustering him out, will probably die in the House.

Mr. Greene, of the Boston Post, telegraphs that the excitement throughout New England is intense.

Gen. Howard writes a letter, remonstrating with negroes who, having been provided homes, North and West, are abandoning their places, spending their earnings and coming back.

In the House, to-day, the entire time was occupied by speeches on Mr. Seward's purchase and the Finance.

The Military Committee consulted Grant previous to the recent action adverse to reducing the army. Grant strongly advised against it. He said that over half of the army was now in the unreconstructed States, and in Tennessee and Kentucky. There was a serious lack of men both in the South and on the frontier. In the Department of the Lakes, barely enough men had been left to take care of the Forts.

All is quiet at the War Department.

Revenue to-day, $460,000; week $2,179,000; year $109,898,000.

A strong pressure is bearing to continue the Freedman's Bureau in full force, in Kentucky and Tennessee.

GEORGIA CONVENTION.

ATLANTA, Jan. 18, P. M.

Gen. Meade sent in a communication, this morning, in which, after acknowledging the receipt of a resolution asking for pay, he says: "I have this day received information that there are no funds in the Treasury at Milledgeville. I have also been reliably informed that some of the public institutions have been suffering, on account of the non-payment of the appropriations for their support. Whether this failure of payment has been on account of the want of means in the State Treasury, or for other reasons, I am not at present advised.

I shall use my best efforts, without delay, to secure means to pay the incidental expenses of the Convention, and at least a portion of the per diem and mileage of the members. If I find, on investigation, that any funds, which should be in the State Treasury, have been placed beyond my reach, I may deem it necessary to suspend, temporarily, the payment of a portion of the current salaries of all the officers, who receive their pay either from the Treasury or the State Roads.

You will perceive, from the facts above stated, that it is out of my power, at present, to comply with the request of the Convention, as much as I desire to do it.

In lieu of granting this authority, I respectfully request that the requisition of your disbursing agent may be sent to me for my approval, that I may see that such funds of the State, as may become available, be properly distributed, according to the public necessities."

The Convention refused, almost unanimously to suspend the rules to pass a resolution asking the Federal authorities to make advances for the payment of the expenses of the Convention.

A resolution to appoint a committee to examine the State Treasury was tabled.

Sections 8 and 9 of the Bill or Rights of the old Constitution were adopted.

One delegate gave another the lie, during to-day's session—a quarrel arising out of the non-receipt of pay. Both caught up their chairs, but violence was arrested and mutual apologies made.

Gen. Meade has issued an order validating the relief ordinance of the Convention, with the exception that execution is not to be stayed, in cases of taxes or laborers' wages.

RECONSTRUCTION IN GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 18, P. M.

Advices from Milledgeville state that Gov. Jenkins, being called on by the citizens at the Executive Mansion, made a speech and said that the funds of the State had been removed to New York and he should fight for them before the Supreme Court.

The books of the State Treasurer cannot be found. The Postmaster and Express agents refuse to deliver over to Capt. Rockwell letters and packages addressed to John Jones, State Treasurer of Georgia.

BEAST BUTLER CHALLENGED.

RICHMOND, Jan. 18, P. M.

The Inquirer, of Monday, will publish the challenge of Col. White, a Republican member of the State Convention, to Gen. Butler, when the latter was here, last week. It demands reparation for being ordered out of Butler's department, during the war. The affair is still pending. White is one of the Republicans, who refused to hear Butler's speech.

A NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The following remarks of the Washington Evening Express, a neutral paper, are conceived in a fine spirit, and contain a good suggestion. A National Convention, composed of the wisest and best men from all sections and of all parties, would no doubt settle the difficulties of the country. The Express says:

"From the date of the surrender of Johnston's army to Sherman we have felt satisfied that the easiest, most direct, and most satisfactory method of adjusting our national difficulties was by assembling a National Convention. Congress cannot act save under its chartered powers & the grants of authority made expressly in the Constitution, and while the Republicans have contended that the war-making power was amply sufficient to control all legislation in regard to the insurrectionary States, this has been steadily denied, and a conflict of opinions is going on which, if permitted to continue as heated and as angry as it is becoming, may involve the country in horrors, the bare contemplation of which is enough to make our blood run cold. Yet we see no other course open to any man from one end of the country to the other who would not cheerfully acquiesce in the will of the people fairly expressed, no matter how antagonistic it might be to his own convictions.

But while a great party is found indulging in legislation which some of its own leaders confess to be outside of the Constitution; while the attention of Congress, instead of being directed to questions of finance and industrial development, is engrossed with schemes to cripple the Judicial and Executive departments of the Government; while ten States are excluded from any voice in the legislative councils; and while propositions are made to clothe a single man with imperial powers over one-half of the Republic, the country is convulsed with an excitement which is becoming more and more dangerous, and which can easily be arrested by the people of the United States in Convention assembled.

If the people desire negro suffrage, let their representatives, whose authority no one can question, so declare. If they want the disfranchisement of rebels, a National Convention can make good their wishes with authoritative voice. If they wish to curtail the prerogatives of the Executive, or the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, to vest in Congress the control of the question of suffrage, there is no doubt of the power of a Convention of their delegates to make their requisite amendments to the organic law.

Congress can prescribe the conditions under which an election for delegates can be held. Such an election could be ordered for the month of March. The Convention might meet in April. Its deliberations should be brief; but, even if they occupied three months, the amendments might be submitted to the people on the anniversary of the day of the adoption of the Constitution—the 17th of September—and in that verdict the people would acquiesce with one voice.

Should such a Convention be called, we do not believe there will be one man in it who will advocate such a proposition as is now supported in Congress, to require more than a majority of the Judges of the Supreme Court to make a decision. Nor do we think that one member of it will propose to take away the appointing power from the President. Certainly there will be no one who would propose to permit Congress, of its own motion, to defend the President of the control of the army, and give it to his subordinate, the commanding general-in-chief. Evidently these are revolutionary measures. If not fit to be incorporated into the organic law, they ought not to be countenanced by the National Legislature.

But the Republican leaders aim at certain results. If they have, as they claim, the people with them, they can secure them through a National Convention, and without the slightest danger of popular disturbance. But if revolutionary legislation is persisted in, no man can foresee the results. We think, therefore, that patriotism and sound party policy alike commend the proposition for a National Convention to the Representatives of the people."

RETURN OF A LONG ABSENTEE.—Lieutenant Thomas J. Simpson, formerly of the Confederate army, son of Mr. William L. Simpson, the well-known cattle dealer, reached this city yesterday, having been imprisoned since the 3d. of September, 1864. Lieut. Simpson belonged to the Seventh Virginia cavalry, and resided in Loudoun county when the war broke out. He was captured and sent to Camp Chase, Ohio, on the 3d. September, 1864, where he remained as a prisoner of war until the cessation of hostilities, when he was liberated. Whilst registering his name at the Revere House, in Columbus, Ohio, he was assaulted by an officer of the Arkansas cavalry, who inflicted two serious wounds on Simpson. Lieutenant Simpson then wrenched the weapon from the hands of his assailant, and shot him in self-defence. He was thereupon placed in the Ohio State prison, where he remained until the 7th. of January, 1867, when he was forwarded to Little Rock, Arkansas, and tried before a military commission, which resulted in his acquittal. He left again for his home in Loudoun county, Virginia, but had the misfortune of being blown up in a steamboat and seriously injured, and after much suffering reached the home of his father in this city yesterday, much to the gratification of his wife and children and other friends.—Bal. Sun, 13th.

SHERMAN OR STANTON.—Lieutenant General Sherman, it is said, expressed himself very strongly to-day in regard to the re-instatement of Stanton. I am informed that in a conversation with a high official he alluded to the subject pretty much in this style: "If a dismissed staff officer of mine were to be forced back upon my staff during war by the Senate, I should give him all the messages to carry to the front."—"To have him shot off, I suppose," said the official. "Certainly, sir," replied the General, very emphatically. The conversation was related to-night to the President, who smiled, and remarked, "The trouble is in this case that I can't send Stanton to the front."—[Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald, Jan., 4th.

There was quite a lively time in the Commissioner's Court in Winston last week.—Dr. J. L. Johnson, Assistant Assessor of this district, was tried in two cases,—one for making a false return, the other for receiving a bribe. The evidence in both cases was conclusive, and he was bound over in the sum of $1,000, in each case, for his appearance at the next term of the Federal Court. Dr. Johnson, we believe, is one of the extremely loyal men who were so active, some time since, in trying to have our paper suppressed for disloyalty. We know the other "gentlemen" who were concerned in the affair, and we know them to be greater rascals than Johnson, and we hope to chronicle their retirement to private life before we fall in the hands of the Philistines.—Winston Sentinel.

NEW ARRANGEMENT FOR THE SENTINEL.
Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,
Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.
William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }
In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.
In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:
A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;
The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.
As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.
The principal markets will be regularly published.
Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.
Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.
Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,		$8 00
" "	six months,	4 00
" "	three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year,		4 00
" "	six months,	2 00
" "	three months,	1 00
Weekly "	for one year,	2 00
" "	six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.
As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.
☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.
General Orders No. 164.
I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:
SUITS FOR DEBTS.
Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.
Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:
EXECUTION.
Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865 unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.
FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.
The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 20th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.
Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 20th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 186.
Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:
SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.
All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.
Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:
HOMESTEADS.
In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the excluded property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.
ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.
Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions or contracts only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.
EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.
Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.
DISTILLERIES.
II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.
BAR ROOMS.
III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 20, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:
1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.
2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.
3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.
4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.
5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.
6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.
The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.
DISTRICT COURTS.
IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the Judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.
PILOTAGE.
V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.
NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.
VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as labourers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
